Image requirements

- Images should be good quality taken in a well-lit environment: in focus, properly exposed, plain background.
- The patient should not be identifiable
- Please advise whether you wish your contribution to be specifically acknowledged.

I freely give my consent for BlackandBrownskin, to use copies of these images for an indefinite period. These images may be used for the following purposes.

- Display on BlackandBrownskin website, which provides information about clinical presentation on darker skin
- Use in lectures, school reports, research papers, scientific posters
- Publication in professional journals or other print or electronic media including television programmes
- Other purposes that BlackandBrownskin decides appropriate

Images displayed on BlackandBrownskin will not include the name of the person photographed, however, complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed. BlackandBrownskin usually displays an optimised low-resolution file that contains a watermark of the BlackandBrownskin logo.

I understand that on request, BlackandBrownskin may agree to supply a copy of the original quality images or low-quality images without the watermark to another person or organisation. BlackandBrownskin may charge a fee to do so to offset the time and effort required. I understand I will not receive any payment should this occur.
